My current living situation (please describe in as much detail as possible):

Please check any of the following that apply to your situation:

- I am currently without housing and I consider myself homeless.
- I am currently "couch surfing" because I don't have any other choice.
- I am currently living in overcrowded conditions (i.e. with family or friends).
- I am living in substandard housing.
- I feel I cannot afford the housing I am currently living in.
- I am not sure if I consider myself homeless, but feel I could qualify for assistance.
- I typically jump from one place to another.
- Other: _____

_____ If you feel you may not qualify for supportive housing voucher at this time, but would like to keep updated on the progress of this specialized program, please check here.

_____ I am interested in being put on the waiting list for veteran's supportive housing.

If you are not a veteran but know of someone who could be assisted with safe and affordable housing for Native American Veterans, please provide this information to them.
